680HAMILTON

A mixed-use development located in the charming neighborhood of Boulevard Heights which sits adjacent to the bustling community of Grant Park. The goal of 680 Hamilton is to serve the needs and desires of the neighbors in Boulevard Heights, Grant Park, Ormewood Park, Chosewood Park, Peoplestown and the daily visitors on the Westside Beltline Trail. Since 1929, 680 Hamilton was a collection of industrial style buildings formerly home to the Commercial Acetylene Company, a maker of commercial acetylene gas, which was used in the early 1900's as a source of fuel for both lamps and welding torches.

Today, the vintage buildings are being refurbished back to life into approximately 9,000 square feet of bright and modern retail and dining concepts, along with a large gathering area to invite the visitors of the Beltline trail into the project experience. Combining the convenient location off the Atlanta Beltline with the warmth and hospitality of a familiar family-friendly neighborhood establishment, 680 Hamilton seeks to create a neighborhood experience that is destination worthy.

A mixed-use development in Atlanta's Boulevard

Heights neighborhood on the Southside BeltLine Trail.

Situated along the former Atlanta and West Point rail line, now formally known as the Atlanta Beltline, this 6 acre property contains structures dating back to 1930 and will consist of five mid-rise apartment buildings containing 265 units and ~9,000 square feet of retail.

Approximately 9,000 square feet of retail, restaurant and entertainment space featuring unique, historical charm.

Large outdoor area with ample seating and green space.

Potential for open-air liquor license allowing the sale of to-go drinks into the outdoor space.

Highly curated mix of destination style shopping, dining and entertainment, that highlights both local and regional talent.
